FROM THE PRESIDENT

In the 1950's leisure time prospects greatly improved after the war. Motor car ownership increased especially following the introduction of Australia's own car the 48 215 Holden better known as the FX Holden. February 1950 roughly 10,000 and by May 1953 100,000 FX Holden's produced and now ordinary Aussie families could experience the freedom of the road. Black and white Tele with the Hills hoist were also the mod cons coming into family homes.

There were still many challenges similar to today like insects, yard maintenance cleansing and polishing the car. For the car, there was no need to rush out and buy the flash new expensive polish, for a fraction of the price ordinary boot polish would do the job and some kero mixed with water would give the sparkling new look. Around the house a little kero on a duster to polish the floors gave a great shine and acted as great deterrent for borers. Ants in and around the kitchen were easily dealt with, the simple sponge and some sweetened water did the trick, just when the sponge was covered with ants you simply dropped it into boiling water. The new Victor lawnmower was a noisy contraction but it cut the grass quickly and certainly woke up the neighbours.

By the end of the 1950's there was huge outdoor screen that could be watched from the comfort of the car known as the Drive Inn, and on cold nights just before you left home you could simply heat up a brick in the oven wrap it in a blanket and place it on the floor to take away inside chill.

So here we are today along some 70 years since that first Holden along with many others that made their way into our lives. Some liked more than others the Kingswood, Premier and Statesman throw in some muscle like the Monaro and Torana built to race. You could watch these power machines at Bathurst on Sunday and buy them on Monday. The Sandman was just a flashed up Panel Van and even today still a very sort after breed.

I think many families some time or another have had a Holden parked in their driveway as the pride and joy. I know I look back and smile when I come across certain cars and think to myself if only I knew then what I know now.

Holden Australia you certainly started something special, I have enjoyed the ride and like many enthusiasts will make sure the Holden's name is not forgotten.

Cheers Lance

FROM THE EDITOR

David Spencer

Hi Guys

I hope you all have had a great month. There wasn't any organised club runs this month however I did see a fair few impromptu runs notified on the Impromptu Runs Facebook group. For March there are 2 club runs organised. The first one to Toorbul for a sausage sizzle lunch provided by the club this Sunday (Let Ray Bland know quickly if you haven't told him you are coming). The second run is on Sunday the 29th to Fernvale Bakery for lunch.

While reading about Corvettes I have come across some interesting web sites that I thought that you may be interested in:

The Old Car Manual Project - <http://www.oldcarbrochures.com/>

This has old car brochures for a wide range of vehicles from around the world. This example is the first page of the 1978 Corvette Brochure.

A photograph of a silver Corvette from the 1978 brochure. A woman in a white dress is standing next to the car, looking towards the camera. The car is parked in a studio setting with a plain background.

The 25th Anniversary Corvette.
It stands alone today as it has since the summer of 1953, a truly unique and finely machined two-seater, America's only true production sports car. The legend lives on and improves, as legends do, with the passage of time.

The Silver Anniversary Corvette: Twenty-five years in the making, and we've enjoyed every minute of it.
And now, if you will, a round of applause for the Corvette founding fathers: Harley Earl, Zora Arkus-Duntov, Bill Mitchell, Ed Cole...

Also for the countless men and women who've had a hand in building and refining Corvettes over the years. For everyone who has ever owned a Corvette, driven one, loved one. Or dreamed about owning one someday. Which, we'd imagine, includes just about everybody.

Available on any Corvette are many Options and Custom Features. Many are illustrated or described in this catalog. Availability often depends on the model and other equipment selected. Your Chevrolet dealer has all the details. Copyright 1977, Chevrolet Motor Division, General Motors Corporation.

I will use photos and comments of club runs that have been put up on Facebook unless the poster wishes me not to. Please let me know if I cant use your photos or comments. I will try to credit the photos to the poster when I use them.

If you would like to see different things included then please email me your suggestions and I will try to add them where I can.

Last months post about my burst radiator hose on the Corvette has resulted in others sending me photos of their coolant leaks.

Here are some pics of Gary Yeo's little cooling problem a few months ago.

People asked " how did you know the head gasket was blown?"

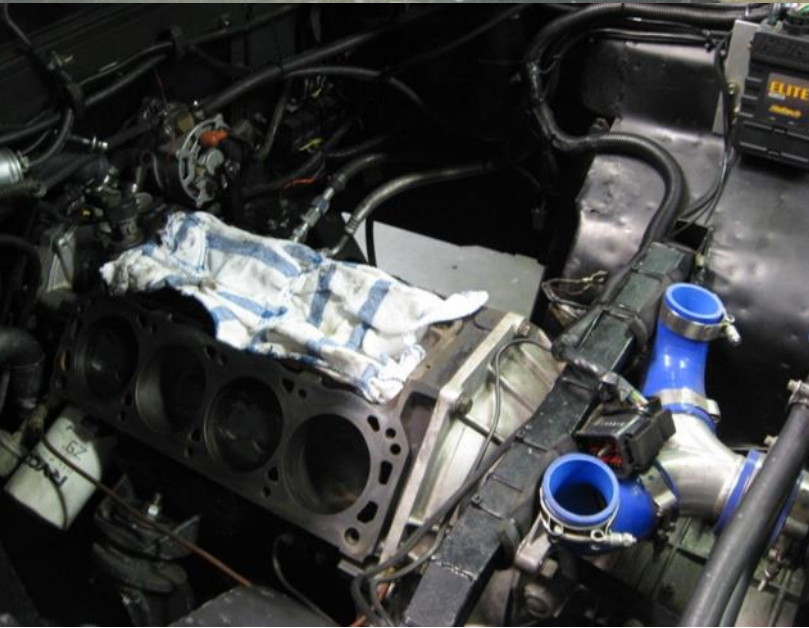

"Green coolant coming out the LH exhaust pipe!"

The original 20 year old head gaskets lasted a few years with 13psi of boost on them!

Multilayer stainless steel head gaskets now and heavy duty valve springs fitted to the heads.

Match ported the inlet manifold to the heads whilst I had it apart.

This old Ford Windsor engine has done 250 000 k's and still has the hone marks on the bores!

"It doesn't look good. Leave it with us overnight and hope it gets stolen."

"I'd love to put you behind the wheel of this car. However, I doubt the bank will allow you to finance it for 30,000 months."

RUN ETIQUETTE

To ensure that their vehicle has adequate fuel to reach the destination or the next planned fuel stop. Refuelling the vehicle should be done before refuelling oneself! Run departures will not be delayed for those vehicles needing last-minute fuel particularly if there has been an ample opportunity to fill-up before the run departs.

Urged to be on time for the commencement of the run and/or event. Should a member be running late and wishes to commence the run with the group, he/she should contact the run coordinator. Similarly if members wish to join en-route.

Urged to keep together wherever possible, particularly in built-up areas. This will minimise the necessity of continually stopping to regroup which can be hazardous. It is realised that keeping together in built-up areas can be difficult, but often those caught at traffic lights will catch-up to those in front as they themselves are slowed by lights.

Not permitted to overtake the designated run leader. However participants may move about within the group, overtaking when safe and legal.

Encouraged to remain with the group until the agreed dispersal point at the end of the event. This also applies to static events such as car shows.

Encouraged to carry a small portable UHF CB radio and set to Channel 9. Such radios are relatively inexpensive, and have ranges varying from around one to five kilometres. They are invaluable and a medium by which to keep informed about what is going on, and to let the group know if you have become separated or broken-down.
